PREFACE.

---

J. A. KEAR, JUN.,
PRINTER,
12 MILSOM STREET, STAPLETON ROAD,
BRISTOL.

THE adoption of the Two-move Restriction by all the leading Draughts Associations has caused this mode of playing to become exceedingly popular, so much so, that it is quite common to find the principle adopted for all the games at many draughts-playing resorts.

The fact that there is no cheap work dealing with the Two-move Openings in a systematic manner, has caused me to prepare this book, in the hope that it will prove of service to lovers of the game.

The large number of Openings (47) has caused strict economy of space to be observed, and I have abandoned the excellent Andersonian plan of showing the play, in favour of one similar to that adopted by John Drummond in all his works. It will be found that this has the merit of using the entire space, whilst rendering the play in an easy and accessible style. The numbers of the variations are printed in a slightly heavier type, so that they can be found at a glance.

Credit for the play has been given in every case, and whilst every care has been taken to ensure this being assigned correctly, some few instances may occur where the actual first contestants are not shown. Any errors that are brought to my notice will be rectified in the Encyclopædia of Draughts, publication of which I am shortly resuming. Corrections and improvements of play here shown, will also be given in that work. Where the play has been between players, the name of the player of the Black men is placed first.

The Openings have been given numbers in their consecutive order, and in connection with this, Mr. I. Kindred, of Brighton, has suggested to me the idea of the Two-move Openings being known by these numbers in all cases. This commends itself as a most excellent plan, and one that will be followed in any future work that may be issued by me. If this had been followed in the 1908 English Tournament Games Book, the Opening there given as No. 33 would have had its correct number, viz. 46.

9-14, 21 17 and 10-14, 21 17 have been eliminated, as the actual loss of a piece is sufficient to debar them being considered as Openings.

The Laws of the Game here given are those published by Andrew Anderson, in his second edition, with one or two slight alterations. In Rules 2 and 4, the word Black has been altered to White, I would strongly advocate the law being made to read positively White, for it is well known that a white man is much more easily seen on a white square, than a black man on a black square; this applying, of course, more particularly to painted boards. The Time-limit laws have been altered to suit the requirements of modern play. The difficulty of giving warning on nearing the end of each thirty minutes, might easily be overcome by having a bell attachment similar to alarm clocks.

Some of the old Openings are brought up in a different manner under the Two-move style, thus the "Whilter" play (11-15, 23 19, 9-14, 22 17, 7-11, 26 23) is shown in the No. 26 Opening as follows:—10-15, 23 19, 7-10, 26 23, 9-14, 22 17. Many of the Openings run into others and some knowledge of these is most essential. A large number are shown in the following pages.

The Problems are all end-games, and have been selected for their practical utility.

JAMES A. KEAR, JUN.

INSTRUCTIONS.

THE following diagrams illustrate the manner of placing the Men and numbering the Board:

BLACK.

WHITE.

BLACK.

1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28
29	30	31	32

WHITE.

The game is played by two persons, each moving one piece in a diagonal direction alternately. The men go forward until they have reached one of the four squares on the extreme opposite side of the board, when they become kings, and can then move either in a forward or backward direction.

The following shows the way in which the men are taken: Play the Black man on square 11 to square 15, and the White man on 22 to 18; the man on 18 can then be taken by Black on 15 leaping over it to square 22 and removing the man on 15 from the board. Several pieces may be taken at once, providing they are exposed by alternately having open squares between them, but should a capture land a man in the king row, it must there wait to be crowned (this is done by placing another man on the top), and cannot go on taking until another move has been made by the opponent. If the capturing piece should be already a king, it can complete the take at once.

The game is won by the player who succeeds in capturing or blocking all his opponent's pieces.

The Black moves are indicated by a dash, and the figures at the side indicate variations: thus on page 25, the student having played the first five moves of the game, may go to variation 8, and continue by 18 14 instead of 29 25.

LAWS OF THE GAME.

THE STANDARD BOARD.

1. The Standard Board must be of light and dark squares, not less than fourteen and one-half inches nor more than eighteen inches across the said squares.
2. The board shall be placed so that the bottom corner square on the left hand shall be white. (See note to rule 4.)

THE STANDARD MEN.

3. The Standard Men, technically described as Black and White, must be dark and light (say red and white, or Black and white), turned, and round, and not less than one and one-eighth inch, nor more than one and one-fourth inch in diameter.

The Draughts must be so made that one piece will stand steady on another for crowning.

PLACING THE MEN.

4. The men shall be placed on the white squares.

NOTE.—Rules 2 and 4. After substituting the word Black for White, these two laws become binding upon the players of any place where it is customary to play on the black squares. If the black squares are to be played on, red and white men must be used.

5. The Black men shall invariably be placed upon the real or supposed first twelve squares of the board; the White men upon the last twelve squares.

ORDER OF PLAYING.

6. Each player shall play alternately with Black and White men, and lots shall be cast for the colour only once—viz.: at the commencement of a match—the winner to have the choice of taking either Black or White.

7. The first move must invariably be made by the person having the Black men.

TIME LIMIT FOR MOVING.

8. The time for moving shall be at the rate of fifteen moves per half-hour; time saved during one half-hour may be used during the next or subsequent half-hours. Thus at the end of a half-hour of his own time, a player must have made at least fifteen moves, at the end of a hour, thirty moves, and so on. The method of checking the time shall be by means of clocks in pairs, supplied for the purpose. Each player must stop his own clock and set his opponent's going after completing his move.

9. Each player must keep the score of the game so that Rule No. 8 may be properly applied.

ARRANGING THE MEN DURING A GAME.

10. Either player is entitled, on giving intimation, to arrange his own or opponent's pieces properly on the squares.

TOUCH AND MOVE.

11. After the pieces have been arranged, if the player whose turn it is to play, touch one, he must either play it or forfeit the game. When the piece is not playable, he forfeits the game.

12. If any part of a playable piece be played over an angle of the square on which it is stationed, the play must be completed in that direction.

CAPTURING PLAY.

13. A capturing play, as well as an ordinary one, is completed whenever the hand is withdrawn from the piece played, even though two or more pieces should have been taken.

14. When taking, if a player removes one of his own pieces, he cannot replace it, but his opponent can either play or insist on his replacing it.

FALSE OR IMPROPER MOVE.

15. Either player making a false or improper move shall instantly forfeit the game to his opponent, without another move being made.

THE "HUFF" OR "BLOW."

16. The "Huff" or "Blow" is, before one plays his own piece, to remove from the board any one of the adverse pieces that might or should have taken. The Huff or Blow never constitutes a play.

17. The player has the power to Huff, compel the take, or to let the piece remain on the board, as he thinks proper.

CROWNING THE MEN.

18. When a man first reaches any of the squares on the opposite extreme limit of the Board, it becomes a "King," and can be moved backwards or forwards, as the limits of the Board permit, though not in the same play, and must be "crowned," by placing a man on the top of it, by the opponent; if he neglects to do so and play, such play shall be put back until the man be crowned.

DRAWN GAMES.

19. A "Draw" is when neither of the players can force a win. When one of the sides appears stronger than the other, the stronger party is required to complete the win, or to show to the satisfaction of the Umpire or Referee at least a decided advantage over his opponent, within forty of his own moves, to be counted from the point at which notice was given, failing in which he must relinquish the game as a draw.

CONDUCT OF PLAYERS AND SPECTATORS.

20. Anything which may tend to annoy or distract the attention of the players is strictly forbidden,—such as making signs or sounds, pointing or hovering over the board, unnecessarily delaying to move a piece touched, or smoking. Any principal so acting, after having been warned of the consequences, and requested to desist, shall forfeit the game.

21. While a game is pending, neither player is permitted to leave the room without a sufficient reason, or receiving the other's consent or company.

22. Any spectator giving warning, either by sign, sound, or remark on any of the games, whether played or pending, shall be ordered from the room during the match, and play may be discontinued until such offending party retires.

MATCH GAMES.

23. A match between equals, wins and draws to count, should consist of an even number of games, so that each player may have the first move the same number of times.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE LAWS.

24. Either party committing a breach of any of these laws must submit to the penalty, and his opponent is equally bound to exact the same.

UNFORESEEN DISPUTES.

25. Should any dispute arise not satisfactorily determined by the preceding laws, a written statement of facts must be sent to a disinterested arbiter, having a knowledge of the game, whose decision shall be final.

OPENING No. 1.—12-16, 21 17.
